

FIRST UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CHURCH

A Virtual Service

Summer Theme: Compassion

August 16, 2020

Crossing the Line: Borders, Bravery, and Belonging.

We live in a time of deep and dangerous divisions – and a time of people coming together like never before. In the face of great uncertainties, how do we cultivate hope and human connection?

THIS MORNING'S PARTICIPANTS...

Preaching:

Rev. Jim Foti

Rev. Foti is one of the ministers at the First Unitarian Society of Minneapolis. He last spoke at our congregation in the fall of 2018.

Worship Associate:

Paul Trewartha-Weiner

Musicians:

Austin Ferguson, keyboards

Rev. Luke Stevens-Royer

Joe Mish, cello

Opening Slide/Organ Bells

Welcome	Rev. Luke Stevens-Royer
---------	-------------------------

Hymn	Come, Come, Whoever You Are	Austin Ferguson
------	------------------------------------	-----------------

Chalice Lighting	Paula Horner and Peter Edl
------------------	----------------------------

Call to Worship	Paul Trewartha-Weiner
-----------------	-----------------------

Interlude	Joe Mish
-----------	----------

Time for All Ages	Amy Nelson
-------------------	------------

Music	I am Open	Rev. Luke Stevens-Royer
-------	------------------	-------------------------

Embracing Meditation	Melissa Egger
----------------------	---------------

Prayer	Hush	Rev. Luke Stevens-Royer
--------	-------------	-------------------------

Reading	The Complaint of Rio Grande by Richard Blanco
---------	--

Offertory	Southeastern Minnesota Scholarship Fund (PFund)
Hymn	Draw the Circle Wide	Austin Ferguson

Sermon	Crossing the Line	Rev. Jim Foti
--------	--------------------------	---------------

Benediction	Gonna Keep on Moving Forward	Rev. Luke Stevens-Royer
-------------	-------------------------------------	-------------------------

Children's Benediction