
Lyrics

Where You Go

Where you go, I will go, beloved,
where you go I will go (repeat)

For your people are my people,
your people are mine (repeat)

Your divine, my divine.

#1064 Blue Boat Home

Though below me, I feel no motion standing on these mountains and plains.
Far away from the rolling ocean still my dry land heart can say:
I've been sailing all my life now,
never harbor or port have I known.
The wide universe is the ocean I travel
and the earth is my blue boat home.

Sun , my sail and moon my rudder as I ply the starry sea,
leaning over the edge in wonder,
casting questions into the deep.
Drifting here with my ship's companions,
all we kindred pilgrim souls,
making our way by the lights of the heavens
in our beautiful blue boat home.

I give thanks to the waves upholding me,
hail the great winds urging me on,
greet the infinite sea before me,
sing the sky my sailor's song:
I was born up on the fathoms,
never harbor or port have I known.
The wide universe is the ocean I travel,
and the earth is my blue boat home.

We are building on our justice partner relationships with a focus on one organization each month. This will include opportunities for learning, volunteering, and donating half of the Sunday collection each week to support their work.

March's justice partner is Hawthorne Helps Hawthorne Helps is a uniquely First UU Social Justice Outreach in partnership with Rochester Public School's Hawthorne Education Center. With financial contributions from UU members and friends & additional support from local faith, service and business groups, Hawthorne Helps has provided essential NON-SNAP items to HEC adult students for over 7 years. 85% of students live at or below the poverty level. Most are people of color, and many are immigrants, all striving to make a better life for themselves and their families.
