

CCL Meeting Notes:

In attendance:

Melissa Egger
Rev. Luke Stevens-Royer
Kelly Rae Kirkpatrick
Roxanne Schlasner
Robin Taylor
Joe Lobl

CCL Team:

Remaining on Team: Robin Taylor, Aleta Borrud
Stepping Down: Joe Lobl, Kelly Rae Kirkpatrick, Roxanne Schlasner
*Rev Luke/ The Shared Ministry Team will recruit new members for the CCL Team.

Membership:

30 new members for 2021-2022
11 new members since reopening
Still using Pathway to Membership "At your Pace" , Melissa meeting in person with each new visitor discussing ways to get connected, membership and stewardship.
Many families and newcomers on Sunday mornings!
New member get together late spring/early summer

Hospitality:

Roxanne and Kelly Rae stepping down after Summer
Open signup of hospitality roles going well, and personal asks on Sunday morning are well received.
Simplified hospitality roles are a positive thing.
Hiring of Property Steward Nick Woolums (new member!!)
Brainstorming on restructuring for Fall, with CCL Team and Luke's input including a board member being present on all Sunday mornings.

Fellowship:

Robin would like to step down as she has done this role for many years.
Great gatherings with Armchair travelers, DoNuts in the Park, and other great events that people are attending.
Creating of the "Creative Arts" Series starting in April 2022, extending through January 2023 so far. Lots of interest.
Walden Hill Wednesday Dinner will start again on May 25th, twice monthly until new church year.
Fall ideas coming in (Drag Queens "Coming Home")